

Record 1 - Crestline Urgent Care - Visit Note

Date of Service: 03/02/2026

Chief complaint: Abdominal pain, nausea.

HPI: 31-year-old male with 1 day of periumbilical abdominal pain, now migrating to right lower quadrant, associated with nausea and one episode of vomiting. Denies fever at home. Last bowel movement yesterday, normal.

Exam: Abdomen soft, mild tenderness right lower quadrant, no rebound or guarding noted. Temp 99.1F.

Assessment: Likely viral gastroenteritis.

Plan: Ondansetron 4mg ODT for nausea. Clear liquids, advance diet as tolerated. Return if worsening pain, fever, or vomiting.
