

Record 3 - Overlake Regional Medical Center - Emergency Department Note

Date of Service: 03/04/2026

Chief complaint: Severe abdominal pain.

HPI: 31-year-old male, seen at urgent care 2 days ago for abdominal pain and diagnosed with gastroenteritis. Presents today with severe right lower quadrant pain, now with guarding, fever of 102.3F, and rigid abdomen. Spouse reports patient described pain as "unbearable" beginning last night and worsening progressively since the urgent care visit.

Exam: Rigid abdomen, marked rebound tenderness RLQ, positive Rovsing's sign. Ill-appearing.

Labs: WBC 18.2 (elevated). CT abdomen/pelvis: perforated appendix with periappendiceal abscess and free fluid, concerning for early peritonitis.

Assessment: Perforated appendicitis with peritonitis.

Plan: Emergent surgical consult, IV antibiotics (piperacillin-tazobactam) started, to OR.
